Veterinarian – Acquario di Genova

Requirements:

- Valid Italian Veterinary license or able to obtain one within a short time
- Experience with zoological species including marine mammals, birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians preferred
- Able to work on a flexible schedule including week-ends, holidays, emergencies and work on-call
- Proficient in Microsoft Office suite
- Possess driving license

Duties and responsibility:

- With Director of Animal Health, maintains and manages all health aspects of the animal collection. This includes among other duties, diagnosis and treatment of disease, preventative medicine programs, and nutrition.
- Collects, processes, and analyzes results of diagnostics exams
- In compliance with Italian law, prescribes and/or administers appropriate medical treatments
- With Director of Animal Health and Curators, manages quarantine procedures.
- Maintains detailed records and reporting of diagnostic samples, clinical pathology, and treatment plans for each animal
- Carries out necroscopies and, as needed requires further exams
- Responsible for medical and laboratory equipment needs, including drugs.

If interested and qualified, please email your resume, names and contact details of three references to:

cvisconti@costaedutainment.it